

hey girls...

we're good for universities and colleges...

how Grŵp Llandrillo Menai partnered with hey girls...

Hey Girls 'home pack' delivery service means our learners can order free period products online and have them sent directly to their homes.

Grŵp Llandrillo Menai oversees three of the largest colleges in north Wales, with more than 30,000 students studying a range of courses.

The college group partnered with Hey Girls from early 2022, with funding provided by the Welsh Government to promote period dignity in education centres across the country.

education sector

universities & colleges

home pack service

the need...

The partnership particularly helps students in the local towns and villages from low income households who may not normally be able to access products.

Providing students with free period products helps ensure they do not miss out on their education because of their period.

the impact...

Providing Hey Girls products helps keep people in further education and improve their concentration.

Students at the colleges qualify to have our period products sent to their door thanks to the partnership.

the products...

Grŵp Llandrillo Menai supplies period pants, full cycle kits, cup combos, pads and cardboard applicator tampons which are available for learners at three colleges: Coleg Llandrillo, Coleg Menau and Coleg Meirion-Dwyfor.

“having free products delivered to their home, will ensure that learners do not miss out on any college time.”

Samantha Mellvogue
Director of Learner Services

from the team...

With more than 30,000 students across three of it's colleges, the success of this partnership perfectly shows the benefits a period dignity scheme can bring and the scale that Hey Girls can deliver on.

Daisy Williams, Hey Girls

Want to get the period dignity conversation flowing?
Say hey to the team now:
b2beheygirls.co.uk

say hey...

