

hey girls...

we're good for councils...

how South Lanarkshire Council partnered with hey girls...

It is fantastic to have a partnership with Hey Girls, that will be able to supply products to over 350 locations in the local area.

The team work extremely hard and work with us to create bespoke products as needed.

South Lanarkshire Council provides products to all who require them across South Lanarkshire. Our current population is approx 300,000 and roughly 165,458 people that may be menstruating.

local authorities

councils

home pack service

the need...

The council likes to support social enterprises, with a focus on ensuring partnerships benefit people in need.

Partnering with Hey Girls not only helps those for whom the council purchase products for, but also wider communities.

the impact...

South Lanarkshire Council provide stock and products to all who require them across South Lanarkshire. Our current population is approx 300,000 and roughly 165,458 people that may be menstruating.

the products...

The council supply a range of Hey Girls products, via the home pack service.

"the council likes to support social enterprises, with a focus on ensuring partnerships benefit people in need."

Brian Borland
Community Participation Officer

from the team...

We first started working with South Lanarkshire in 2018 and our partnership has continued to grow as our united message to end period poverty becomes more widespread. "It is great working with local authorities that share our passion and firmly believe in the values for which we stand.

Georgie Nicholson, Hey Girls

Want to get the period dignity conversation flowing for your council? Say hey to Georgie now: Georgie@heygirls.co.uk say hey...

